WEEKLY

June 8, 2011

Students at CLEW Camp this week are (l to r): Kaylee Oyler, Carly Youngberg, Addison Ray, Chayse Sandoval and Colby Engel. When we dropped them off at camp on Monday, they were excited about the new adventure they were about to take. Please remember supervision.

It's time to register NOW, as several of the camps filled early last year. The church will pay one-half of camper fees. Also, some camps need additional leaders, especially men, to provide adequate Gifts are optional, but for those thinking about a gift—Clay & Rachael live in Mexico. Due to taxes charged by the Mexican Government for items taken into Mexico, monetary or Wal-Mart gift cards would make the perfect gift.

Youth Force Perkins is June 26- July 1 this year. We appreciate the help and support of our Church Family with Youth Force over the years and would like to extend an invitation with snail mail encouragement letters to our mission team. If you are able to send a note of encouragement the address is:

There is an inescapably passive dimension to the Christian life. I like the way Gustavo Gutierrez puts it. The Christian life, he says, must include some "useless," "wasted" time for spirituality—periods in which we

It's been a busy Spring for the music department and we are very pleased with the direction that we are headed.

It has been quite a few weeks but we still remember the fantastic Easter cantata entitled "Who Do You Say That I Am?". It was performed by members of the adult choir along with the invaluable assistance of our narrators/actors. They were:

Rob Fiegenger as John
 Pat Cornell as Peter
 Karen Smith as Mary
 George Chapman as Pontius Pilate
 Bob Marcy as Joseph of Arimathea
 Jill Weedon as Mary Magdelene

These people were absolutely flawless, going way beyond our expectations and lifting the entire performance to higher level. We so much appreciate their efforts and contributions!

We followed that week up with a special music performance from Angie Brinkley. I think the entire congregation was blessed with her rendition of "Down In the River to Pray".

We finished up the month of May by hosting the "Spring Sing" annual event sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance of Clinton. Our church was well represented at that event where the Praise Band played a couple of our favorites, "Lay Em Down" and "In Me". Kristi Flies & I performed "How The Lost Get Found" and Carla Cruson and I did our instrumental version of "Just A Closer Walk", which we reprised, by request, in the following Sunday service.

We have some great music coming up in the next few weeks, hopefully including some new praise band songs. I'm starting work on another combined choir and praise band song that I hope to finish and have ready for rehearsal within the next month.

This coming Sunday we will be treated to some very special music during the offertory by organist Shelia Ann Litsch. Shelia also performed at the Spring Sing event and everyone loved it. She has been practicing on our organ for the last few months and I have the pleasure of listening from my office. She is an incredible player! Her performance will bless everyone in the congregation, so don't miss it! -- Scott Lowber

New Day Camp

Van Drivers are needed on Friday, June 17th to pick up kids from the Clinton area after New Day Camp at Crosspoint Camp, Lake Texhoma. As you may already know, New Day Camp is a special United Methodist camp, designed to minister to children whose parents are incarcerated. We have found volunteers who are willing to take the kids down on Monday, June 13th, but still need two people to pick them up and drive them back home on Friday. If you can help, please contact Jalynn.
